M&G Global Floating Rate High Yield Fund

a sub-fund of M&G Investment Funds (7)

Sterling Class A-H – Accumulation shares ISIN no. GB00BMP3S923

Managed by M&G Securities Limited

Objective and investment policy

The fund aims to provide a higher total return (the combination of capital growth and income), net of the Ongoing Charge Figure, than that of the ICE BofAML Global Floating Rate High Yield Index (3% constrained) USD Hedged over any five-year period.

Core investment: At least 70% of the fund is typically invested in high yield floating rate notes (FRNs) issued by governments and companies from anywhere in the world, including Emerging Markets. The FRNs are held directly and indirectly via derivatives combined with government or corporate bonds. These securities can be denominated in any currency.

Other investments: The fund may invest in other assets, including bonds issued by governments, corporate bonds (investment grade, below investment grade and unrated), asset backed securities, other funds (including funds managed by M&G) and cash or assets that can be turned into cash quickly.

Derivatives usage: For investment purposes and to reduce risk and cost.

Strategy in brief: The fund is designed to provide income while minimising the negative impact of rising interest rates by investing mainly in FRNs. The fund focuses on FRNs issued by companies with a low credit rating, which typically pay higher levels of interest to compensate investors for the greater risk of default. Part of the fund may be invested in other fixed income assets, such as government bonds. Spreading investments across issuers, industries and countries is an essential element of the fund's strategy and the manager is assisted in his selection of individual bonds by an in-house team of analysts.

Benchmark: ICE BofAML Global Floating Rate High Yield Index (3% constrained) USD Hedged

The benchmark is a target which the fund seeks to outperform. The index has been chosen as the benchmark as it best reflects the scope of the fund's investment policy. The benchmark is used solely to measure the fund's performance and does not constrain the fund's portfolio construction.

The fund is actively managed. The fund manager has complete freedom in choosing which assets to buy, hold and sell in the fund. The fund's holdings may deviate significantly from the benchmark's constituents.

For unhedged share classes, the benchmark is shown in the share class currency. For currency hedged share classes, the benchmark is hedged to the share class currency.

Risk and reward profile

■ The above risk and reward indicator is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of this share class. This Share Class is categorised in risk class 4 because its Net Asset Value has shown medium rises and falls in value historically.

■ The risk number shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.

■ The lowest risk number does not mean risk free.

The main risks that could affect performance are set out below:

■ The value and income from the fund's assets will go down as well as up. This will cause the value of your investment to fall as well as rise. There is no guarantee that the fund will achieve its objective and you may get back less than you originally invested.

■ Investments in bonds are affected by interest rates, inflation and credit ratings. It is possible that bond issuers will not pay interest or return the capital. All of these events can reduce the value of bonds held by the fund.

■ High yield bonds usually carry greater risk that the bond issuers may not be able to pay interest or return the capital.

■ The fund may use derivatives to profit from an expected rise or fall in the value of an asset. Should the asset's value vary in an unexpected way, the fund will incur a loss. The fund's use of derivatives may be extensive and exceed the value of its assets (leverage). This has the effect of magnifying the size of losses and gains, resulting in greater fluctuations in the value of the fund.

■ Investing in emerging markets involves a greater risk of loss due to greater political, tax, economic, foreign exchange, liquidity and regulatory risks, among other factors. There may be difficulties in buying, selling, safekeeping or valuing investments in such countries.

■ The fund is exposed to different currencies. Derivatives are used to minimise, but may not always eliminate, the impact of movements in currency exchange rates.

■ The hedging process seeks to minimise, but cannot eliminate, the effect of movements in exchange rates on the performance of the hedged share class. Hedging also limits the ability to gain from favourable movements in exchange rates.

■ In exceptional circumstances where assets cannot be fairly valued, or have to be sold at a large discount to raise cash, we may temporarily suspend the fund in the best interest of all investors.

■ The fund could lose money if a counterparty with which it does business becomes unwilling or unable to repay money owed to the fund.

■ Operational risks arising from errors in transactions, valuation, accounting, and financial reporting, among other things, may also affect the value of your investments.
