WHAT ARE THE RISKS AND WHAT COULD I GET IN RETURN ?

Risk Indicator

Lower risk Higher risk

The summary risk indicator assumes you keep the Product until maturity end of the recommended holding period (5 years).

The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this Product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the Product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this Product as 3 out of 7, which is a medium-low risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium-low level, and poor market conditions are unlikely to impact our capacity to pay you.

Significant risk(s) for the Product not taken into account in this indicator include the following.

Concentration risk: To the extent that the Product investments are concentrated in a particular country, market, industry or asset class, the Product may be susceptible to loss due to adverse occurrences affecting that country, market, industry or asset class.

Interest Rate Risk: By definition, interest rate risk corresponds to the possibility for an investment fund to be negatively impacted by a change in interest rates. The interest rate risk can thus manifest itself through a reduction in financial income in the event of a fall in interest rates and/or an increase in financial expenses in the event of a rise in interest rates. An increase in interest rates may cause the value of fixed-income securities held by the Fund to decline.

Small capitalisation: The Product invests significantly in smaller companies which can carry a higher risk because their prices may be subject to higher market fluctuations than those of larger companies.

Investments into other UC/UCITS: A Product which invests in other collective investment schemes will not have an active role in the day-to-day management of the collective investment schemes in which it invests. Moreover, a Product will generally not have the opportunity to evaluate the specific investments made by any underlying collective investment schemes before they are made. Accordingly, the returns of a Product will primarily depend on the performance of these unrelated underlying fund managers and could be substantially adversely affected by the unfavourable performance.

Currency risk: The Product invests in overseas markets. It can be affected by changes in exchange rates which may cause the value of your investment to decrease or increase.

For more information about the risks of the Product, please refer to the risk section of the prospectus.

This Product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

Performance Scenarios

The figures shown include all the costs of the Product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What you will get from this Product depends on future market performance. Market developments in the future are uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted.

The unfavourable, moderate and favourable, scenarios presented represent examples using the best and worst performances, as well as the average performance of the Product and/or the appropriate benchmark indicator over the last 10 years.

Markets could develop very differently in the future.

The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances.

What happens if Funds Avenue S.A. is unable to pay out ?

The Product's ability to pay out would not be affected by the insolvency of the manufacturer. You may however face a financial loss should the Depositary default on its obligations. Such default risk is limited as the Depositary is required by law and regulation to segregate its own assets from the assets of the Product. There is no compensation or guarantee scheme in place which may offset, all or any of, these potential losses.
